SUMMER ORCHESTRA 2011

WEEK 1...

REGISTRATION...

How does Kearney manage to have so many outstanding string students year after year? The answer isSummer Orchestra. Once again we will be offering two weeks of classes that will improve your playing and increase your musical knowledge. All classes will be held in the air-conditioned music rooms at Kearney High School. Our school string instruments will be available for your use during the two weeks, with the opportunity to rent on June 17.

Registrations are due by May 18. Please!

Two weeks, with something for everyone!

Zing In Your Strings

A chance to put more energy, greater enthusiasm and new skills in your playing. A variety of classes will be offered. All classes will be filled with information that there is never enough time to teach during the school year. Subjects to be included, but not limited to: basic maintenance, how to shop for a new instrument, playing higher-2nd position and beyond, vibrato, bowing techniques, virtuosi-the best of the best; composing and performing-finale & garageband, and small groups-playing with your friends. (9:00-12:00)

Pick Me-how to audition for honor groups Learn how to prepare and what to do when auditioning for All-State and other honor orchestras. Includes instruction on the All-State etude and selections. Start now, avoid the fall panic. (3:00-4:00)

WEEK 2...

Fiddle Camp

Cristina Seaborn, composer, arranger, teacher and fiddler extraordinaire, will be teaching all aspects fiddling. In addition, jazz/blues will be added this year. Three levels will be offered: beginning, intermediate, advanced. The week will conclude with a Friday night concert and barbecue. (9:00-12:00)

Lessons with Cristina An opportunity to take a private lesson. Time is arranged. Additional fee. (1:00-3:00)
